SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of 3 years.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
5. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. § 16901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: ABDUL RAHEEM HABIL ALI-SKELTON
CASE NUMBER: CR 16-77 DWF

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. DEFENDANT: ABDUL RAHEEM HABIL ALI-SKELTON
CASE NUMBER: CR 16-77 DWF

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- a The defendant shall abstain from the use of alcohol and other intoxicants and not frequent establishments whose primary business is the sale of alcoholic beverages.
- b The defendant shall complete an immediate assessment or participate in a program for substance abuse as approved by the probation officer upon release or relapse during their term of supervised release. That program may include testing and inpatient or outpatient treatment, counseling, or a support group. While a cognitive skills program may be used as an additional component of treatment, a cognitive skills program shall not be substituted for drug treatment or aftercare programs, including a 12 step program
- c The defendant shall participate in a psychological/psychiatric counseling or treatment program, as approved by the probation officer. Further, defendant shall contribute to the cost of such treatment as determined by the Probation Office Co-Payment Program not to exceed the total cost of treatment.
- d The defendant shall submit his person, residence, office, vehicle, or an area under the defendant's control to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer or supervised designee, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a supervision violation. The defendant shall warn any other residents or third parties that the premises and areas under the defendant's control may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
- e The defendant shall not possess or use a computer or have access to any on-line service without the prior approval of the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall identify all computer systems, Internet-capable devices, and similar memory and electronic devices to which the defendant has access, and allow installation of a computer and Internet monitoring program. Monitoring may include random examinations of computer systems along with Internet, electronic and media storage devices under the defendant's control. The computer system or devices may be removed for a more thorough examination, if necessary. The defendant shall contribute to the cost of such monitoring services, based on the defendant's ability to pay, as deemed appropriate by the Probation Office.
- f The defendant shall provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information, including credit reports, credit card bills, bank statements, and telephone bills.
- g The defendant shall not possess, view, access, or otherwise use material that is reflects extremist or terroristic views or as deemed to be inappropriate by the U.S. Probation Officer in consultation with the treatment provider.
- h The defendant must submit to periodic polygraph testing at the direction of the probation officer as a means to ensure that you are in compliance with the requirements of your supervision.
- i If not employed at a regular lawful occupation, as deemed appropriate by the probation officer, the defendant may be required to perform up to 20 hours of community service per week until employed. The defendant may also participate in training, counseling, daily job search, or other employment-related activities, as directed by the probation officer.
- j The defendant shall cooperate with child support officials to make regular support payments and pay any outstanding child support obligations.
- k As part of the defendant's substance abuse program, the defendant shall make a good faith effort to obtain and work with an AA or NA sponsor.
- l The defendant shall participate in not less than one (1) AA or NA meeting per week.
